

Experiencing the
First Unitarian Church
Gardens
in Four Seasons!

Our gardens are beautiful in all seasons, whether the crocus are in bloom or not!

Take a stroll in our gardens in all of its seasons. Explore its wonders from late spring 2011 through early spring 2012.

Take your camera, paints, imagination. Write a poem, sculpt, weave, compose a song, create a collage.

Adults, teens and children are encouraged to submit one entry per person in the late spring 2012 William's Art Gallery reception/exhibit.

There is limited space for 3 dimensional work. All works must be submitted ready for hanging with a wire hanger. Details will follow.

For more information, please contact Victoria O'Brien at 242-0102 or email her at laff56@gmail.com.